

RAMSDEN BELLHOUSE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

April 2023

Issue 3 Page 1

Welcome Friends, to the Third RBHS Newsletter.

Tulip Mini Show!

Tulips Delight

Monday 17th April 2023 was the day for our Tulip Mini Show. Many members were lucky enough to pull their Tulips through odd weather conditions and display some absolutely wonderful Blooms. Congratulations to the winners of each section.

Here follows the winners;
By Class Number;

- C-1 Gail Carpenter
- C-2 Philippa Jenkinson
- C-3 Philippa Jenkinson
- C-4 Fiona Whittaker
- C-5 Joan Clark
- C-6 Carol Dines
- C-7 Tony Rogers
- C-8 Tony Rogers
- C-9 Val Jones

Although the weather has been against us, there were many wonderful exhibits.

Well done to all those who took part, it all looked so lovely.

Also on Monday 17th April

Our speaker for the evening was Andrew Babicz

Who talked to us about

Composting

Explaining about the , Centuries old, discoveries and myths.

He explained the How, when and why we use compost.

It was a most fascinating talk!

Andrew's Website

Tulip Mini Show

Editor: Robert (Bob) Grieve
Email: bobfromrbhs@yahoo.com
All content subject to Copyright ©

RAMSDEN BELLHOUSE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

April 2023

Issue 3 Page 2

A quick look at some of the excellent content on show.

Thank you again, to those of you who help with the tinned food donations, Gail is overwhelmed with all your support.

Please remember!

If you are unable to get to the Monthly Meetings owing to ill health,
Please let me know
and I will bring a card and chocolates to you.

Next meeting is on May 15th.

Shona Lockhart

Will be speaking about;

The Unexpected

Show Boarder

Editor: Robert (Bob) Grieve
Email: bobfromrbhs@yahoo.com
All content subject to Copyright ©